<sup>2</sup> § 10 Simultaneous study of several degree programmes (parallel studies)

- (1) Students who are already enrolled at another university can be admitted to the University of Vechta if it is possible to study at both universities at the same time.
- (2) Students who are already enrolled in a degree programme with restricted admission at this or another university may only be enrolled in another degree programme with restricted admission if they have been admitted to that degree programme, if the degree programme is a reasonable complement to the first degree programme, and if it is possible to study both degree programmes at the same time.
- (3) The actual feasibility of a parallel study programme (see sections 1 and 2) and the question of a meaningful addition (section 2) must be justified by the applicant. The Admissions Office may also seek the opinion of the examination board responsible for the programme here and/or the examination board responsible at the other university.
