

Brown Bag Seminar Series

„Global Talents for Local Transformations“

Seminar Dates

Presenter & Topic

December 1, 2021

Judith Bopp

“Organic farming practices and smallholders’ household resilience in Bangladesh.”

December 15, 2021

David Valerio Miranda

“Ecology, ethics and plurality from the rural council democracy in Mexico in the face of global context.”

January 26, 2022

David Mrisho

“How to Improve Recovery and Reduce Burnout among Physicians in Rural Tanzania.”

February 23, 2022

Bernd Leisen

“Digital volunteering as a way to foster intergenerational cooperation in rural areas.”

March 23, 2022

Sakina Faru

“Rural-urban migration as a cause of family inequalities for women and girls in Lake Victoria areas, Tanzania.”

April 20, 2022

Marisol Lopera Pérez

“Environmental education and sustainability: the engine to transform the world.”

May 18, 2022

Georg Götz

“Tearin’ up the country with a song? How pop culture transformed attitudes and aspirations of the young in Germany’s northwest in the 1970s.”

June 22, 2022

Kerstin Schatz

“Inclusive church music: Social transformation processes in rural areas through the link between the musical field of church music and Community Music.”

July 13, 2022

Anne-Katrin Schwab

“Transformation im ländlichen Raum. Ein Ökodorf und seine Wirkung in die Region.“

All seminars take place from 2pm to 3 pm on a Wednesday

Registration: welcomecentre@uni-vechta.de